

It is of the utmost importance that the media not be monopolized and that many diverse views are available to the citizens of our nation. As one of those very citizens, I trust that you feel the same way and will insure that current ownership restrictions are not relaxed.